

The current NJ do not call law has eliminated all unwanted solicitations. My husband and I would like to see the law remain in its current form.